EDMONTON BULLETIN AUGUST 10th, 1886

BULLETIN STEAM PRINT.

It may interest readers of this paper to know that with last issue the BULLETIN press began to be run by steam, the power being furnished by a new three horse engine from the Doty works, Toronto. This important and somewhat expensive addition to the plant of the office has been made with a view of decreasing to the smallest possible period the time necessarily elapsing between the putting of the latest news in type and the presentation of that news to the public in the newspaper. While the BULLETIN cannot compete with the large city papers turning out ten to forty thousand copies an hour, it flatters itself that with its present facilities with which one thousand copies an hour are printed, it is well up with the requirements of the place, and indeed is in a position to satisfactorily handle any probable increase of business that the progress of the country may bring to it for the next year at least. By putting in the most complete plant that the amount of business to be done will permit this office is enabled to turn out work at decreased prices to the customer with credit to the proprietor. Don't forget that the BULLETIN now runs by steam, and gives the news up to date.

THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR.

The prospective visit of the minister of interior is a matter of more than ordinary importance as the Hon. Mr. Daly will be the first member of the Canadian cabinet to penetrate so far into northwestern wilds. It is altogether creditable to the minister that he should thus by travelling through the part of the country which is committed specially to his care seek to inform himself regarding its ever varying conditions and endless requirements. Had this been the practice in former years of the men holding the position now filled by the Hon. Mr. Daly there is every reason to believe that the Northwest would have benefited greatly by the resultant better administration of its affairs. There is no doubt that the responsible minister can learn more by the use of his sense in a not too hurried trip through the country than he could ever learn by other means; and especially when the means of knowledge upon which he would have to depend would be official who naturally look at everything rather from the official than than the public point of view. By travelling through the country Mr. Daly places himself in touch with the people and can hear from them directly how the different regulations of his department affect them. By remaining at Edmonton from Thursday evening until Tuesday morning the minister will certainly be able to post himself on this part of the country, and it should be the care of those who have taken him in hand to entertain him to see that he is posted as thoroughly as possible on the great difference existing between this and other parts of the Territories, so that in future regulations may be framed with a view not only to the requirements of settlers on the plains, but also with regard to the conditions surrounding settlement in this more favored region of more varied interests.

THE SEASON.

The present season of growth in the Edmonton district has been up to the present date, one of the most favorable on record. Although spring opened late and seeding was consequently not commenced as early as usual, owing to warm weather setting in as soon as the snow had gone and the summer main-cumming in May instead of June as is ordinarily the case, seed began to grow strongly as soon as it was put in the ground, and has made an uninterrupted growth ever since. The rain was abundant and the weather moderately warm, until the last week of July when the rain ceased and the weather became very hot. This heat continued until Tuesday last and gave the crops a turn towards ripening at just the right time. The past day or two has been cooler with strong wind, but without approaching the danger line as yet. All reports are to the effect that the grain is maturing rapidly and that barley cutting will commence on many farms next week. Wheat and oats are coming close after the barley and all three bid fair to give very heavy yields. It was feared at one time that the continued showers during the latter part of May, all of June and the early part of July would have caused the straw to grow too rank, but this does not appear to have been the case generally. On summer fallow or on low ground there will be some lodged grain, but only there. If the weather continues favorable for a couple of weeks longer everything will be out of danger. The growth of grass has been equal to that of crop. There is an abundance of both swamp and upland hay throughout the district and since haying commenced the best of weather has prevailed. There is every prospect that an immense tonnage will be put up this year. Roots and vegetables generally are also a heavy crop and are maturing in good time. Onions of all varieties and particularly seed onions have done extra well this season. Small fruits both wild and cultivated are an excellent crop. Of the former strawberries and raspberries have been marketed in large quantities and there is every prospect of an abundance of the later varieties such as sa-katoons, black currants, blueberries, cranberries both high and low bush etc. Cultivated red and white currants and strawberries have produced abundantly; also raspberries. Of these the Turner variety seems to be perfectly hardy in this climate and to bear abundantly with very little care. Blackberries of the wild variety growing in the Eastern provinces are also doing well here, stand the winter without protection, growing rapidly and bearing abundantly. The only damage or even drawback that has been suffered by grain crops of any kind in this district this season has been by two or three local hail storms. One of these damaged the crops of some seven or eight farmers on Stony Plain and three or four south of Rabbit Hill. Another damaged two fields near Sandy lake. While the loss from this cause is larger than usual this season, and is to be regretted, this district will bear favorable comparison in this particular with any other district of like area in Manitoba or the Northwest. Taken altogether there is a certainty of an excellent haying and every prospect of an abundant harvest, a most desirable event at any time and particularly so at this time when so many new settlers have come into the district, whose confidence would be shaken by a bad season, and as well their expenses be increased until they raise crops of their own.

MODERN MAGIC.

The Big Bonanza company gave their third and last entertainment on Monday evening to a small house. The entertainment comprised feats of strength or magnetism by Miss Minnie Marden such as newspaper readers generally have read of being performed by Annie Abbott, the Georgia Wonder. There did not seem to be any possibility of trick or collusion of any kind, and yet Miss Marden was able to perform feats of strength which were clearly beyond any possible muscular power that she could have possessed. For instance while six men tried with all their strength to hold a billiard cue to the floor, and were assisted by the weight of Mr. John Coleman who sat on their hands, the cue standing upright, Miss Marden raised the cue from the floor with all this weight upon it and carried it across the stage without special effort. The most peculiar feat of all and which could not be considered an effort of strength, was as follows: Miss Marden stood upon a chair and Messrs. W. H. Cooper and J. Coleman standing on each side and with their hands on her arms below the elbow raised her from the chair with the greatest ease. Standing firmly upon the chair again with their hands placed as before, Mr. D. B. Wilson pulled the chair from under her feet, and all the strength that Messrs. Cooper and Coleman could exert, and they evidently did their best, could not keep her from sinking to the floor. Indeed Mr. Cooper sprained his wrist slightly in the attempt. Miss Marden's performance was followed by songs and dances by Miss Cora and Max Le Hoen, aged six and four years respectively. While they did wonderfully well and appeared to enjoy it, it seemed positively cruel to have such little children so employed. The next performance was the exhibition of rope trick done in public. Prof. Marden was tied to a chair on the platform by H. Goodridge with 100 feet of rope, apparently as securely as possible, but in far less time than was taken in tying him he shook himself loose from the rope and walked off the stage. The secret of this feat appears to be that the coarse rope cannot be tied so tightly around the wrists that the performer cannot slip his hands out, and once the hands are free the rest is only a matter of time. The concluding performance was an exhibition of mind reading in which Mrs. Le Hoen was blindfolded on the stage and then gave the name of an article held by any one in the audience, even telling the time by a watch which she could not possibly have seen even had she not been blindfolded. Also the names of cards drawn at random from a pack by members of the audience, the faces of which neither herself nor Prof. Marden had seen. It is possible that the magnetism and mind reading admit of as simple an explanation as the at one time celebrated and mysterious rope trick, but for the present they are quite as inexplicable as it ever was. Mrs. Le Hoen's playing on the piano was excellent.

The annual general meeting of the Hudson's Bay company was held in London on the 17th instant, at the City Terminus hotel, Sir Donald A. Smith presiding. The governor, in moving the adoption of the report, stated that, including £17,763 brought forward, there was a profit of £89,116, compared with £50,253 in the previous year; and after paying a dividend of 12s a share—which would require £60,000—as against 6s 6d a share for the previous year, they would carry forward £29,116, compared with £17,763. This improvement was to a considerable extent owing to the increased price of furs at the last sales in January and March, but it was only fair to say that the profit had also been materially increased by the economies which had been effected in London and Canada. They hoped, too, that there would be still further considerable economies in the near future. The valuation of the trading goods in the inventory on May 31st, 1891, was £449,400, and in 1892 the figures were £555,201; but the advances up to May 31st, 1891, were £30,566, while in 1892 they were only £30,862. With regard to their land sales, they disposed last year of 16,837 acres of farm lands for £100,465 and 199 town lots £57,841, while in the previous year they sold 17,509 acres for £104,591 and 119 town lots for £55,025. In Manitoba and the Northwest the result had been somewhat better than in the preceding year, but there had been a very considerable diminution in the sales of the town lots in British Columbia, owing, however, in great measure, to a severe visitation of smallpox in Victoria and Vancouver Island during last summer. There was every prospect of a revival in the demand for land.

There are eight times in the United States as the following extract from a speech by Hon. T. M. Patterson chairman of the Colorado silver delegation at Chicago in reply to an address of welcome by president Harrison will show: "When they tell me Chicago is a good, big city, and I look behind me and see its major one of the most distinguished champions of bi-metallism in the United States, I can only say that those who say it mistake the bankers and brokers of Chicago for the masses of the people—a mistake that is often made." (Applause.) Referring to the thousands of idle men thrown out of work by the closing of the silver smelters of the west, he said: "If there is danger of anarchy in this land, who will produce the anarchists?" (Cries of 'the millionaire' Wall street.) If there is danger of looting who will be the cause of it? Will it be the men who were driven from their homes by stress of poverty, and who have been loyal, law-abiding and country-loving citizens, or will it be the men who in cold blood and for selfish purposes so manipulated the last legislature of this country that the money necessary to keep its body in good health was destroyed or fled to hiding places, and thus made these laboring men paupers, thrown upon the charity and the chivalry of the land? (Applause.)

Leading Toronto bankers interviewed regarding reports that Americans are depositing large sums of money in Canadian banks along the frontier say that some deposits by Americans had been made, but not much in excess of usual amounts. Constant and pressing demands during the past three weeks had been made by American companies and firms in the United States for large loans, but Canadian banks have not made such loans to any extent.

WELL SATISFIED.

The following letter explains itself. Mr. Swan is an assistant of H. H. Smith, and accompanied the last party conducted by that gentleman to Edmonton:

EDMONTON, August 7th, 1883.

Editor BULLETIN.

DEAR SIR:

I have just finished making a visit among the settlers from Nebraska. I find that each one of them are well satisfied with the change made.

THOS. SWAN,
Immigration Agent.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

Monday.

Alberta.—Rev. M. Ruccia, George Strachan, Winnipeg; A. E. Snyder, town; Major Grindstaff, Fort Saskatchewan; R. L. Alexander, Mrs. John McNamara, Calgary; D. Godden, Winchester, Ontario; E. Couts, Toronto; Dr. B. de Blie Thibault, E. P. Benoit, M. D., St. Albert.

Jasper.—A. F. Davis, Gen. Hurley, J. N. Graham, Peace River; W. McLeod, P. C. Campbell, T. Blaft, Athabasca Landing; Thos. Swan, Nebraska; F. B. Edmiston, A. Boag, Jas. B. Edmonton, O. Osborne, Clover Bar; J. D. Brook; Winnipeg; T. H. Cairns, Toronto.

Big Hotel—N. Schmidt, Toronto; Moise Lafond, Washington; O. B. Arnold, Nemao.

BEAVER LAKE.

The lake is considerably higher than at this time last year.

Crops look well; in fact could hardly be surpassed. Hay is abundant also.

The resources of the English language would almost fail to do justice to the numbers and ferocity of the mosquitoes that carried on business here this season.

A party of half breeds from Beaver Lake passed through the settlement lately. They were going to Victoria.

A. R. Moody is government land guide here. Why outsiders should be employed to pilot prospective settlers about the district, when a better posted man is on the spot, is difficult to understand.

The close season will soon be over, and the usual influx of Edmonton sports will occur. These gentlemen are not very welcome visitors at the lake, for the simple reason that their everlasting fastidiose feelings the game away, and the hard-working actors the game over.

August 4, 1883.

GENERAL NEWS.

Troops are invading Winnipeg from the States.

The army worm has appeared in Kittson County, Minnesota, near the Manitoba line, and is doing great damage.

The Dominion Government has decided to go on with the sale of the 350 odd islands from the Thousand Island group in the St. Lawrence.

Bogus Standard: The Rev. Father Burke, one of the P. E. Island delegates who visited the Northwest last year, is back again arranging to colonize with his co-religionists certain large tracts of land in Alberta.

The grand lodge of the Orange Order of British America, before closing its session at Sainte-Sophie on August 4th, pledged itself to assist the people of Manitoba in maintaining the integrity of its public school system, and also promised its active aid and support to the Ulster Loyalists' union.

An exchange says: "It is stated that the defense in the case of Baumberger, who murdered six members of the Kreider family near Condo, N. B., will be that the young man was hypnotized by one of his victims, the oldest girl." No doubt a sympathetic jury will acquit him. It was a great mistake that this boy was not lynched when first captured. The public mind in the United States seems to be so tickle that there is every probability that members of the mob which desired to burn the fand will form part of the acquitting jury. It seems to be a choice between swift justice and no justice in the States.

Cholera has been epidemic at Marseilles, France, for the past three months and there have been 666 deaths from cholera there since the middle of May. During the last four weeks there have been 426 deaths from cholera in France. The disease has broken out in Naples and Rome, with deaths about 30 a day in the former city. All the schools in the south of Russia are being closed on account of cholera. There have been 6,666 deaths from cholera in Mecca, Arabia, and 2,318 in India since the present outbreak began. The engine of a Danish vessel has been taken to Grimsby hospital, England suffering from cholera. A ship recently arrived in New York from Europe on which three passengers died during the passage. The ship doctor did not specify the disease as the ship was quarantined.

Canada Presbyterian: A few weeks ago all the infidels, sceptics, Sabbath-breakers, and general scoundrels in the United States joined in a general cry to open the Columbian Exposition on Sabbath. They were ably seconded by the secular press, by the refreshments, by everybody in and around Chicago, who hoped to make any money out of the Sunday opening. The whole army professed to be fighting for the laboring man. They wanted the poor wage-earner to see the show, and as he could not go and see it on week days, they were bound he should have a chance on Sabbath. The gates were opened, but there was just one difficulty. The workmen didn't want to go. He never asked that the gates should be opened, and when they were opened by fraud, he did not go in. The respectable workmen of Chicago knew his own business.

Winnipeg Tribune: There is considerable talk in Ottawa over Bowell's moving the resolution in the grand Orange lodge to give back to the brethren of Ulster to assist the rescue of Home Rule, seeing that he voted for the resolution in the Commons to recognize Ulster's lands in 1882 and 1885. The government of which he was a member gave up both resolutions. There is also much comment on the resolution which was passed to take away the warrant from any primary body which might otherwise vote to the grand organization with other high potentates of the order. To finance the small Orange lodges we already vote them out of existence. A resolution was also passed condemning Atlantic action in the Commons and condemning Curzon and Goschen.

The brick veneered wall of the Grand Pacific hotel Winnipeg, fell recently while undergoing repairs and damaged all the adjoining store to the extent of about $7,000.

The C. P. R. will run three harvest excursions from Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime provinces to Manitoba and the Northwest this autumn. These excursions will be run August 15 and 22, and September 5, from all stations on the Ontario and Quebec and eastern divisions, all stations on the Quebec Central, Erie and Huron, Central Ontario, Kingston and Pembroke, Canada Atlantic and Grand Trunk railways, and on August 14th and 21st, and September 4th, from all stations on the C. P. R. Atlantic division, Intercolonial, Prince Edward Island, and Windsor and Annapolis railways, at the following rates for the round trip: Deloraine, $28; Nesbitt, $28; Oxbow, $28; Monson, $28; Binscarth, $28; Regina, $30; Moose Jaw, $30; Yorkton, $30; Prince Albert, $35; Calgary, 35; Edmonton, $40.
